Comments:

The capacity posted in this report is intended to provide operational information for locations operated by Cove Point LNG, LP (CPL). Capacity reported may indicate that capacity is available for contracting; however, variables and conditions of an operational nature may prohibit the pipeline from contracting capacity for these quantities. Availability of receipt/delivery point capacity does not guarantee available mainline capacity. Requests for alternate receipt and delivery points will be considered subject to further evaluation and approval by CPL. Any questions regarding the information presented herein should be directed to a Marketing Manager or Business Development Representative.
